

Publications by Alice Sluckin on Selective Mutism (1969-2006)

Chair, Selective Mutism Information and Research Association (SMIRA)

Sluckin A. and Jehu D. (1969) 'A Behavioural Approach in the Treatment of Selective Mutism.' British Journal of Psychiatric Social Work, 10 70-73.

Sluckin A. (1977) 'Children who do not talk at school,' Child Care, Health and Development, 3, 69-79.

Sluckin A., Foreman N and Herbert M. (1991) Behavioural Treatment Programmes and Selectivity of Speaking at Follow-up in a sample of 25 Selective Mutes. Australian Psychologist, 126, 132-137.

Sluckin A (1996) 'Treating Selectively Mute Children' in Psychology in Changing Europe, Proceedings, published by British East European Psychology Group, University of Leicester, pp278-279.

Sluckin A (2000) Chapter 'Selective Mutism,' in Law J., Parkinson A and Tamhne R. (eds.) Communication Difficulties in Childhood, pp273-280. Oxford: Radcliffe.

Sluckin A. and Sage R (2004) Video: Silent Children – approaches to Selective Mutism. This is a twenty-three minute video financed by the Department of Education and Skills.

Sluckin A and Sage R. (2004) Silent Children – approaches to Selective Mutism, published by University of Leicester. This book contains chapters by parents of Selectively Mute children and accompanies the above video.

Sluckin A (2005) Staying Silent, in Nursery World, 17.2.05, pp26-27. Inclusion: Selective Mutism.

Sluckin A. Chapter in The Handbook of Social, Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties, ed. by Morag Hunter-Karsh et al (2006). Continuum International Press.

