

B	R	A	V	E
Speaking with relatives and family friends	Speaking in the community	Speaking to "pop up people"	Speaking during sports and extracurricular activities	Speaking with friends and on playdates
Tell someone the name of your favorite TV show or movie and why you like it	When getting ice cream, tell the worker what flavor ice cream you want	Say hello to a neighbor while going for a walk	Tell a coach or teacher your name when asked	Ask a friend if they'd rather build with Legos or play a game
Conduct a survey with 5 people; ask them about their favorite color or favorite animal	Ask a librarian where to find your favorite book	Tell a stranger at the park the name of your dog when asked	Ask a coach when the next game or practice is scheduled	Play a game that involves lots of brave talking, like Guess Who or Battleship
Send a video message to ask someone about their plans for the weekend	Ask a question to a worker at a zoo, aquarium, or museum	Free Space! 	Give a compliment to a teammate or classmate for doing something well	Find out a friend's favorite food
Tell a family member one fun thing you did on a recent trip or vacation	Order a whole meal for yourself and your family	Answer a cashier in a store who asks how old you are	Ask a peer if they have any pets	Call a friend or send them a text
Give a compliment to someone you love	Ask a worker in a store where to find the bathroom	Tell a new peer at the playground whether or not you'd like to play with them, when asked	Ask your coach or teacher for supplies that you need	Invite a friend over for pizza

* created by Rachel Merson, Psy.D.